

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Can I have the book embossed with gold leaf? Can you go into more detail?

We have a wide assortment of options for personalization, the answers to which are available in the "Personalization & Tips" above. You can also click the personalization link at the bottom of every epica.com page for full details.

From our product pages, you can click "Personalize this item" next to any of our products. Here you will be given the opportunity to write your name, initials, sentiments, quotes or anything you would like, on the cover of any of our products.

The choices are limitless. Choose from 22 karat gold, silver, black, maroon, copper, ivory or no color at all, also known as blind embossing. Choose your font: Goudy, Old English or a gorgeous Goudy Script. Choose the position of your inscription: Bottom right, bottom center, absolute center, 1/3 from the bottom, 1/3 from the top or top centered. You get total control of how you want the book personalized! You have up to 30 characters per line. If you are purchasing a larger book, give us a call to expand that or just include it in the notes when you check out and are filling in your credit card information. No other company in the world offers such exclusive service... When you are looking for something truly unique and special, let Epica take care of your next gift!
